A Lesson From Real Life That Shows There had been a gay party down at the "Whisper" the night before. The girls who had been to the party were writing in the little station on the ditch house grounds, and getting things ready with their own hands for the coming day. The girls who had

HEIR SISTER NELL.
Why the West South to Take Care of Kate.
When Tom Norton and his wife came from the north to the practice of some western Louisiana to try farming land, they brought with them a number of possessions.

He brought, also, a very respectable practical common sense. Both were good when asked when he saw his sister knocked out by the hand of his wife.

BOENTS AND MELL.
Our Little Knowledge of Most Hated Speaking of the new edition to her, in accordance of our profound regard upon the whole subject of small, small, literature has suggested that indispensible organ. It has received no kind of justice at all from poets, who have said so much about the eye, the ear, the lip, the hair, the hand, and body generally. There are only three allusions in all of the new as a feature of feminine beauty, only two in the new, and only one in the new, and only one in the new.

FOUR POINTS
THE STYLE
THE GOODS
THE MAKING
THE SELLING
That interest every buyer. The Goods we sell only known qualities. The style our customers trust nothing but the best. The making of our garments, made by hand. The selling —we know what we sell and we sell only what we know; our margin is the lowest consistent with the economical conduct of business.

HUNTING BEAR IN ALASKA.
A Hunt That Once Made a Famous
Man a Famous Man.
One day in the winter, during a heavy snow blizzard, with the thermometer at thirty below zero, a party of men went out to hunt for a bear. The party was made up of a hunter, a guide, and two men. They went out in the morning and after a long search they found a bear. The hunter shot the bear and brought it back to the camp. The bear was a large one and was very fat.
The hunter was very pleased with his catch. He had never before shot a bear of such size. The bear was killed and the meat was cooked and eaten. The hunter was very satisfied with his catch. He had never before shot a bear of such size. The bear
